STORY

The First Ring of a Lightless Realm

After a world emerged from its eternal sleep, a multitude of dragons arose and spread over the lands between. The dragons were split into five types, and the gap between each faction of dragons became wider and wider over time. The darkness of the dragons' hearts and their incomprehensible hatred for humans led to a war. After an unknown number of years, the five dragons became locked in a terrible abyss. The only way out was the hope of a legendary power, the last remnant of the ancient Elden Kings.

As the five dragons fought and became dark and hideous, humans and elves who lived in the lands between became tormented by fear. They prayed to the goddess and began to nurture a legend about the "Imperial Ring," the ring of light imbued by the god of strength. A messenger imbued with power by the gods appeared before the five dragons. To protect the world, the messenger asked for the assistance of a powerful individual. However, the messenger was destroyed, and the gods abandoned the people.

During the time of despair, a boy called Tarn received a ring imbued with the power of the god of strength.

One day, Tarn went to steal the Imperial Ring, and accidentally kidnapped the princess of the dragon lord of the red dragon race, become the emperor of the red dragons. Traveling along the Ring of the Lands Between, Tarn encountered his childhood friend, Ahaz, the daughter of an elven priest.

As Tarn cast off the fear of his former life, he settled in the Lands Between. As a child, Ahaz looked on in awe at the powerful Tarn, her friend, and the leader of a powerful human and dragon race.

Shortly after that, the new sovereign, Ghidhi, appeared. After a period of time, Ghidhi entrusted the fate of the Lands Between to Ahaz and Tarn, and divided the lands into four zones: the region of Vail, Ondia, Etheria, and the skies. The new governor invited all races in the lands between to become Elden Lords, after being blessed by the Elden Ring, the Imperial Ring imbued by a god. From the beginning, Tarn's hometown was named Vail,

Despite his wealth, we met him at a playground near his home in Amherst, Massachusetts, where we found him quietly watching as his 6-year-old granddaughter rode a merry-go-round. While he was gracious and friendly, he didn't offer any insight into his life. We were curious to know what he was doing with his time. When it was time to leave, it took just a few moments for him to say goodbye. He was more concerned about getting to the next stop on the ride. And at that moment, we realized that this man was different, too. Gore didn't always live in a paradise. After he was orphaned, he became a foster child in a series of foster homes. When he was 12 years old, his caretaker sent him away
