moved to Canada at the age of one. He started playing football in his early teens, and played for the semi-professional Calgary Foothills FC team in the Canadian Soccer League during his teens. He had a trial at hometown club Aston Villa during the summer of 2015, and he was offered a two-year scholarship at the University of Central Arkansas in the United States, graduating in 2017. He joined Scottish Premiership club Rangers in July 2017. He made his debut for Rangers in the Scottish League Cup on 12 July 2017, as a substitute for Roarie Degan in the Scottish League Cup quarter-final against St Mirren. He made his first start for the club in the second leg of the Scottish League Cup semi-final defeat against Celtic on 20 August 2017. His first goal for the club came in a 2–0 win over Dundee United in the Scottish Cup on 14 September 2017. He scored his first league goal for the club in a 4–1 win against Raith Rovers at home on 23 December 2017, his goal coming on the 90th minute. Agha scored twice for the Rangers U19 team on 15 August 2017, in a 7–1 win against Dundee United in the UEFA Developmental League. He then scored the third goal in a 3–2 victory against Dundee on 19 September 2017, his first goal in his second appearance for the U19 team. In December 2017, Agha suffered a knee injury during a friendly against the Belgian club K.V.V. Weert. Due to the injury, he was unable to play for two months. In January 2018, Agha returned to the Rangers squad. Agha
